Priscilla and Aquila: Making Tents, Molding Leaders, Moving Mountains

October 18, 2026

Today's Takeaway: God does not need you to have a spotlight to make an eternal impact. He just needs you to open your workplace, your home, and your heart to be used for His Kingdom.

SHARING THE STORY

- The Context of Corinth (Acts 18:1–3): Paul meets Priscilla and Aquila in Corinth. They share the same trade: tentmakers
    - Key Truth: God uses life's hardships and shared experiences to shape us for His purpose
- The Move to Ephesus (Acts 18:18–19): They transition their lives and business to Ephesus to establish a new gospel foothold.
    - Key Truth: God uses quiet, unseen faithfulness in unfamiliar places to cultivate lasting spiritual fruit
- The Mentorship of Apollos (Acts 18:24–26): They hear a gifted speaker named Apollos, invite him to their home, and explain the way of God more adequately.
    - Key Truth: God uses ordinary people who open their homes to humbly invest in and quietly sharpen others for extraordinary kingdom impact.

EXPERIENCING THEIR IMPACT

- Making Tents: The Marketplace Incubator & Co-Laborers (Romans 16:3)
- Molding Leaders: The Living Room Seminary & Hub of Hospitality (1 Cor. 16:19)
- Moving Mountains: The Unsung Infrastructure & Lifelong Faithful (2 Timothy 4:19)
