50-DAY

BIBLE READING

PLAN

SHORELINE.CHURCH

WHEN

MORNING | EVENING

Jesus and the psalmist are often found praying in the morning (e.g., Psalm 5:3; Luke 4:42). The evenings less so, but choose a time when you are at your best and most attentive.

LUNCH BREAK

If you have time during your workday to read during your lunch or another break, this might be a perfect way to spend your time.

ANYTIME

Some of you may have such busy lives that you need to fit it in whenever you can. This is totally normal! Make sure that whatever time you decide to read your Bible that you are in a place where you can focus and reflect on God's Word.

WHAT

STUDY BIBLE

We recommend the NIV Life Application or NIV Study Bible. If you want to get even more in-depth, look at some of the commentaries in the NIV Application Commentary series.

BIBLE READING PLAN

Keep this reading plan in your Bible and refer to it for the first 50 days. If you miss a day (or more), just pick up where you left off and keep going. Once you finish the 50 days, check out Shoreline's Weekly Bible Reading Guide included in the bulletins and online.

JOURNAL | PEN

Grab a fresh journal and a good pen and get ready to write down your observations and the life lessons you will learn.

If you have any further questions about studying your Bible or finding resources that are right for you, please contact us at nextsteps@shoreline.church for more information.

HOW

PRAY

Ask God to speak to you through His Word. And then expect God to speak. Your approach to God's Word will greatly impact your times of personal worship. Ask God to search your heart and transform your life.

READ

Mark up your Bible as you read. If you have an interpretive question, use the study Bible notes to explore answers. It may be helpful to join a Women's or Men's Bible study to get further direction by your peers and leaders in the church.

JOURNAL

Try to limit it to one page per day to start: Start a new page and record the date and Scripture you read on the top line. Write down a verse or two that stood out to you, word-for-word. Stay focused on what God is saying through his Word that intersects with your everyday life. This is not about speculation, private interpretation, or manipulating God's Word to say what you want it to say. This is about bringing Christ to your everyday life based on the truth of God's Word rightly interpreted.
